Jewish community.

Israel and the British

PRIME Minister David

Cameron: We are

news|

8   JEWISH TELEGRAPH

Israel is as unnecessary as making statements in support of threats to Israel. Mr Cameron continued: “Settlements beyond the green line are illegal, plus I know how hard concessions needed for peace can be.”

The PM pointed out that he understood how dark things are for Israel when sur rounded by enemies on every border and I understand how Israelis feel when gas masks are headed out to families and car parks are converted into bomb shelters.

“I long for the day when I can come to a dinner like this doing — trying to delegit icise the State of Israel — and we will not have it.”

He also claims that

Hamas must not be allowed to dictate the way forward for Israel and the rockets from Gaza must stop.

The dinner raised

£3.1 million, with pro

tions dealing with frus were sentenced to 50 months in jail last week in New York, starting on December 17.

A MAN dubbed the “Jewish Indiana

Jones” has been jailed for fraud.

Rabbi Menachem Youlus picked up his nickname by hunting Holocaust-era Torah scrolls.

Youlus had pleaded guilty in Manhat tan federal court earlier this year to hav ing defrauded more than 50 victims, mis

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in prison federal court earlier this year to having defrauded more than 50 victims, mis-

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in

prison federal court earlier this year to having defrauded more than 50 victims, mis-

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors. A Torah Inc, and its donors of around £400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in

prison federal court earlier this year to having defrauded more than 50 victims, mis-

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors. A Torah Inc, and its donors of around £400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in

prison federal court earlier this year to having defrauded more than 50 victims, mis-

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in

prison federal court earlier this year to having defrauded more than 50 victims, mis-

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in

prison federal court earlier this year to having defrauded more than 50 victims, mis-

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in

prison federal court earlier this year to having defrauded more than 50 victims, mis-

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in

prison federal court earlier this year to having defrauded more than 50 victims, mis-

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in

prison federal court earlier this year to having defrauded more than 50 victims, mis-

appropriating some of the donations and

secretly depositing them into the bank

account of his shop, called the Jewish

Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save

A Torah Inc, and its donors of around

£400,000 according to prosecutors.

Youlus was sentenced to 51 months in

prison federal court earlier this year to hav-having defrauded more than 50 victims, misappropriating some of the donations and secretly depositing them into the bank account of his shop, called the Jewish Bookstore.

Youlus also defrauded his charity, Save A Torah Inc, and its donors of around £400,000 according to prosecutors.